Jill speaks to every age group, making the difficult topic of finances accessible and interesting. Jill has been featured on radio, TV, and in print. Her warmth, real world anecdotes, willingness to take questions, and her knowledge of the banking and credit industries make her a must-experience speaker

Adult Speaking Topics The Credit Talk: How to Prepare Teens for the Real World - Jill talks with parents about the ways their teenagers misinterpret adult spending and record keeping. Then she talks about what parents should be doing to prepare their teenagers for adulthood and financial independence.

Jill also speaks on a variety of adult financial topics - What you need to know as a first time homebuyer; Understanding the mortgage process; How your credit report and score affect your life; Understanding the fine print of credit cards; Tips to preventing identity theft; Understanding reverse mortgages; Becoming an entrepreneur; Publish a book

High School Speaking Topics Three Rules to Winning the Credit Game Jill introduce teens to three money and credit concepts that must be understand to ensure financial success.

Middle School Speaking Topics Paychecks: You Got Less, Where's the Rest Jill has an open discussion with teens about gross versus net paychecks. She explains all the possible deductions (Federal and State Taxes, FICA, Insurance, Retirement, Union Dues, Savings, etc.) and discusses why these are required and/or necessary in life.

Elementary School Speaking Topics With Money You Can Buy... Jill introduces children to money with an interactive talk. Each child is given money and then characters come to collect money for life costs such as: housing, food, taxes, insurance, etc. Children learn about expenses in a gentle and fun way, helping them to understand the importance of saving and planning for purchases.

Jill Russo Foster, experienced speaker and media guest

Jill Foster gave an outstanding presentation on credit reporting. Her topics included: range of scores, what scores mean, what influences scores/ factors, the Fair Credit Reports Act and Fair and Accurate Credit Transaction Act. She also reviewed a sample credit report and explained and discussed it in its entirety. Her presentation was so successful that we have her scheduled again!
